

Right-aligned Text

The diagram shows a light blue rectangular box representing a text area. To the right of the box is a vertical dashed green line. Two black arrows point from the right edge of the box towards this dashed line, one at the top and one at the bottom, indicating that the text is aligned to the right edge of the box.